In Greater Dayton, as in over one hundred countries around the world, Chabad is a warm Jewish home that accepts all Jews lovingly and inspires their quest for meaning, spirituality, knowledge, and community.

At Chabad each person is a unique and irreplaceable divine soul necessary in the Jewish mission to perfect and transform this world for the better.

- Children are an active and vital part of our people now and in its future as they engage in hands-on and interactive projects, programs and lessons.
- Teenagers are Jewishly stimulated with delicious food, deep teachings and a warm friendly, engaging spirit.
- Adults find study that touches the heart, the mind and the soul and brings fresh life to their own engagement with Judaism.
- Individuals with special needs find camaraderie with get-togethers geared directly to their unique needs.
- Seniors and the elderly are lovingly cared for and reached out to.

All now expect and look forward to the joyous and loving embrace of Jewishness that they find, an embrace that is not dependent on their origin, affiliation, or degree of observance. They find a feeling of happiness, community and unity that helps each person realize their full holy potential.

Legacy donors are people like you who have been touched by this respect and love and want to do all they can to make sure that others experience it and become inspired themselves.

You are essential in keeping this Jewish love alive and growing. Your legacy will see that there will be no limit, whether in time or space, until the whole world and our own children's and grandchildren's futures are illuminated by its light and joy.
