

Legacy Case Statement

There is no other place quite like the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta (MJCCA). For more than 100 years, generations of Atlantans – make new friends, learn new skills, enhance their Jewish identity, and improve their overall quality of life. Anyone and everyone – regardless of age, interest, ability or zip code – can find a home here.

The MJCCA is a place where strong relationships are developed, and lifelong friendships are made. A place where everyone is welcome, and all are included. Opportunities to connect with people in a meaningful way are part of the very fabric of the MJCCA.

The MJCCA both quite figuratively and often very literally changes people's lives. Here, minds are challenged, and bodies are strengthened. Character is created and positive role models for our future are shaped. Disability means possibility and age is only a number. Jewish traditions are celebrated and brought to daily life. We are life changers and we are game changers. We turn everyday minutes into Jewish moments that are remembered for a lifetime.

Your legacy gift today will ensure that the MJCCA will continue to be a place to gather and connect for the next 100 years.

Legacy funds will:

- provide for continuous growth and capital improvements
- generate greatly needed scholarship dollars
- allow for creative innovation of new programs and services
- ease the dependence on grants and annual giving
- lessen the reliance on membership and program fees
- provide reserve funds for the next 100 years
