

CASE STATEMENT: Congregation P'nai Tikvah

Warm and welcoming, Congregation P'nai Tikvah is the face of hope – educating, inspiring, encouraging, and elevating one another along our spiritual journey. Reaching out with open hearts and open doors, we reflect the growing diversity of the Jewish family, embracing all those who desire to connect or reconnect with a progressive Jewish community that provides a joyful and inspiring place to nourish mind, body, and soul with meaningful prayer, learning, and social action programs.

*“Whatever the faiths you have known or the flags you have flown, you are welcome here.
Whatever the circumstances of your life and whomever you love, you are welcome here.
Whether you ran in here today on little feet, or ambled, or strolled...or rolled in, you are welcome here.
Whether you lean to the right or to the left, or like it somewhere in the middle; whether you are a believer or a questioner, or a questioning believer, you are welcome to this makom shalom, this place of peace, joy, and hope: Congregation P'nai Tikvah.”*

--Rabbi's greeting

Congregation P'nai Tikvah is a progressive community based on Reconstructionist philosophy – open to new ideas, infusing Renewal Judaism into our joyful services. Diverse and inclusive, we are a community of learners and doers. Our youngsters learn experientially and our seniors go from aging to sage-ing.

Our legacy donors are people like you, who believe in a synagogue with an open heart and an open door, and want to ensure that it is here and strong for future generations. Please join us!
