"Camp is where my Jewish heart lives" Sam, age 11

Impact Summary:

Connecting to their own identity, while also connecting to the larger Jewish community, the impact of Jewish camp is immediate and lasts a lifetime. From the pride of excelling in new experiences to learning Jewish and Hebrew songs, to building lifelong friendships, children who attend Jewish summer camp are more likely to grow into adults who value their Judaism, support Jewish causes, and become leaders in their communities, as studies have shown. Jewish camp immerses children in Jewish values, culture, and traditions which enriches their life and the lives of their entire family.

40 children had the time of their lives at Camp Shelanu through the generosity of the donors to the JCC Camp Scholarship Endowment Fund and other donations. In total, $16,000 aided 40 campers whose families struggle to provide this valuable experience for their children.

Todah Rabah from these grateful children and families!
